

Lateral placement with no shoulder or turnout

Lateral placement with curb and gutter

The height of mailboxes is governed by the United States Postal Service, which recommends an installation height of 42 to 48 inches, again for convenient access by the mail carrier.

Above travel lane
or shoulder

Above curb and gutter

Height of the mailbox