

North Central & Central Connecticut Youth Substance Use Resource Guide

This resource list was put together by the North Central Network of Care (NCNC) and the Central Network of Care. A Network of Care is a large group of professionals, parents and community members looking to strengthen the connection between regional partner agencies and families by sharing information, data and resources with the goal of providing a more seamless continuum of behavioral health services and care for communities. To join the North Central Network of Care contact ncnetworkofcare@gmail.com and for more information about the Central region contact Lisa Palazzo at lisa.palazzo@beaconhealthoptions.com

Regional Behavioral Health Action Organization

AMPLIFY, Inc serves as the regional behavioral health action organization (RBHAO) for the North Central Region. Amplify leads regional planning, education, and advocacy efforts that focus on mental health promotion and substance use prevention for youth and adults across the lifespan.
